Active Cleanup Alert

This business recently made waves in the news, which often means that people come to this page to post their views on the news.

While we don't take a stand one way or the other when it comes to these news events, we do work to remove both positive and negative posts that appear to be motivated more by the news coverage itself than the reviewer's personal consumer experience with the business.

As a result, your posts to this page may be removed as part of our cleanup process, but you should feel free to post your thoughts about the recent media coverage

Kevin Davis has lied and to give information about two murders.

One the stabbing on Eastern Avenue. It was reported that the witnesses failed to show up in previous case involving the young man who stab the homeless man. What was not told was that witnesses where Baltimore City Police Officers.

Secondly the shooting of the six young men who were shot were two died. The police said the community came forward. Not true the man who did the was a young that police had relocated in their protection at the time of killed two. They arrested without incident while he at a family member house.

Colt .380 semi-automatic that had been stolen in Gaston County – 18 days before the confrontation for $100. One bullet was found in the chamber of the cocked gun, the safety was off and Murray said Scott's DNA was found on the grip and slide.

The person who sold the gun to Scott admitted to doing so when confronted by state and federal law enforcement, according to a prosecutor's report on the shooting. "The seller said that Scott asked him to find him a weapon because he was having problems with his wife and her

People who claimed on social media that they had seen the shooting and Scott was unarmed later recanted – three people who'd made the claim told State Bureau of Investigation agents in interviews that they hadn't actually seen the shooting, Murray said.

Murray said he ran the evidence in the case past 15 veteran prosecutors in his office and they were unanimous in their recommendation that there was insufficient evidence to charge Vinson in the case. Two of those prosecutors were African-American

Disagreeing? I found a little known article about Cuban baseball defector Rene Arocha. Check this out
@jbrady_CT @CounterMoonbat @TonyMazur
- people down," said Arocha, 27. "He is despicable, ruining the lives of so many people. I am living proof of what Cubans can accomplish if they are given their freedom, which is the most precious thing in life."
Freedom is something Arocha craves for his daughter as well as his mother, sister and grandfather who remain in Cuba. Gus Dominguez, Arocha's Los Angeles-based agent, said the pitcher has requested permission on several occasions from the Cuban government to see his family.
"We come up with the same old red tape everytime," Dominguez said. "The Cubans say it has nothing to do with the fact he defected, but that's just the official line."

- Arocha said he's often been asked why he abandoned his family two years ago. If he loves his daughter so much, the question goes, why did he walk away from her?
- tightly controlled. Decisions on who would start which games were never explained, and the players were forced to attend meetings to hear political speeches.
- "Nothing was ever explained; they just made decisions and nobody would know why," he said.
- Off the field, people were punished for seemingly minor violations. He recalled the time an uncle was jailed for simply possessing American dollars.
- It was all setting to him. he said

Hillary Clinton @HillaryClinton

If the FBI is watching you for suspected terrorist links, you shouldn't be able to just go buy a gun with no questions asked.

But if the FBI is watching you for jeopardizing national security, you should be able to run for president with no questions asked?
Makes perfect sense.

Summary: S.2040 — 114th Congress (2015–2016)

All Bill Information (Except Text)

There is one summary for S.2040. Bill summaries are authored by CRS.

Shown Here:

Introduced in Senate (09/16/2015)

Justice Against Sponsors of Terrorism Act

This bill amends the federal judicial code to narrow the scope of foreign sovereign immunity by authorizing U.S. courts to hear cases involving claims against a foreign state for injuries, death, or damages that occur inside the United States as a result of a tort, including an act of terrorism, committed anywhere by a foreign state or official.

more important to give the 9/11 families their day in court than to worry about the possible fallout with Saudi Arabia, which they argued wouldn't have anything to worry about if it was not connected to the terror plot.

"How can anyone look at the families in the eye and tell them that they shouldn't have the opportunity to seek justice against a foreign government responsible for the death of their loved one?" asked

But the judge, Shira A. Scheindlin, found that the Police Department resorted to a “policy of indirect racial profiling” as it increased the number of stops in minority communities. That has led to officers’ routinely stopping “blacks and Hispanics who would not have been stopped if they were white.”

The judge called for a federal monitor to oversee broad reforms, including the use of body-worn cameras for some patrol officers, though she was “not ordering an end to the practice of stop-and-frisk.”

Somebody tell Cheyenne Lewis that.

@IshmaelWiggins @DT4L_MBK @MBarberWSOC9 @Early__May @wsoctv

My FACEBOOK Post on Saturday on the horrific shooting of Cheyenne Lewis. The teenager was shot and temporarily paralyzed by an unknown gunman who shot into a car she was riding in with friends while celebrating the end of her summer as a life guard. Sabrina Owens-Lewis gave me permission to share this publically

-----Elliot , thank you for the post on Cheyenne Lewis, it was very thoughtful of you to take the time out to reflect. Cheyenne is a very strong young woman who has taken this horrific event as a chance to help others deal with their struggles. While in the rehab she would mentor other teenagers and assure them that everything would be better but they had to keep their minds strong.

There was once a time in our history when whites were given a license to hunt negros. Now negros are hunting negros. Elliott, when will "Black Lives" matter to BLACK people. There was a lot full of people at the Love's gas station that night but yet no one wants to talk. An innocent child has loss the life she once knew

Before the video of the incident was made public on Monday, police spokeswoman Jeanne MacKenzie told reporters that Crutcher "refused to follow commands given by the officers."

She added, "They continued to talk to him. He continued not to listen and follow any commands. As they got closer to the vehicle, he reached inside the vehicle, and at that time there was a Taser deployment, and a short time later there was one shot fired"

unfolded

Buffalo's best bet in limiting harm while letting go of McCoy would be if a moral clause in his contract kicks in. Such clauses are common in athletic contacts and they allow teams to nullify or alter deals with players who engaged in criminal or unseemly behavior.

The language of McCoy's contract has not been made public, but according to prominent law firm Loeb & Loeb's definition of moral clauses, an assault charge might allow for the Bills to save money in a potential divorce with the ball-carrier.

Still, any escape clause in the Bills' contract with "Some" is a couple. Not hundreds of thousands.

@MrFukUrFeelin_s @cnnbrk

There are approximately 2.1 million legal or illegal immigrants with criminal convictions living free or behind bars in the U.S., according to ICE's Secure Communities office. Each year, about 900,000 legal and illegal immigrants are arrested, and 700,000 are released from jail, prison, or probation. ICE estimates that there are more than 1.2 million criminal aliens at large in the U.S.

In the most recent figures available, a Government Accountability Office report titled, "Criminal Alien Statistics," found there were 55,000 illegal immigrants in federal prisons and 206,000 in state and local lockups.

A 5th grade teacher is explaining to her class that she is a Liberal and how nice it is to have Obama in the White House.

She asks the class to raise their hands if they support Obama too. Everyone in class raises their hands except one little girl. "Mary," says the teacher with surprise, "why didn't you raise your hand?" Because I'm not a Liberal," says Mary.

"Well, what are you?" asks the teacher. "Well, my mother and father are Conservatives, so I'm a Conservative, too."

"Well," says the teacher in an annoyed tone, "that's no reason for you to be a Conservative. What if your momma was an idiot and your papa was a criminal what would you be then?"

Mary smiled. "Then we'd be Liberals."
